Christmas Day murder in county area

Campbell police were called Christmas Day to 879 Pollard Road to find two men fighting for their lives in the yard and a third man bleeding to death on the kitchen floor. Taken into custody by Police Officers Bob Wallace, Vern Lunt and Larry Kelly, who converged on the murder scene in two patrol cars, was Jack Thompson, 43, who had just shot and killed his step-son, Henry William Rodrigues, 26.

Thompson fired the fatal shot when he was refused admittance to the Pollard home of his ex-wife, Mrs. Hazel Ann Thompson last month. After having the door slammed in his face

BLOOD STAINS PATIO FLOOR----The broken rifle lies in a pool of blood on the patio floor after Kenneth Brown wrestled the gun from Jack Thompson, and severely beat him with the rifle butt. Brown first hit Thompson with a soft drink bottle, pieces of which may be seen on the floor.

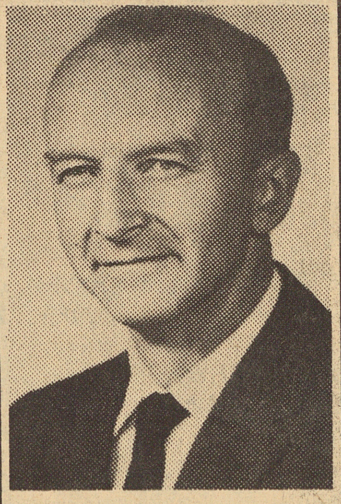
"Time and the patience of God"

Rev. Oliver Ruud was asked to write a New Year's Message for Campbell Press Readers.

The Rev. Oliver Ruud is pastor of Zion Lutheran Church situated at Payne and Eden Avenues. Having been called by the mission department of The American Lutheran Church, Pastor Ruud came to San Jose late in 1959 to establish this congregation that has grown to over ninety families in this time. A first unit was constructed and dedicated early in 1960 and the growth of the Sunday School makes further building necessary in the near future.



REV. OLIVER RUUD

The new year marks the beginning of a two-service schedule at Zion at the hour of 8:30 and 11 o'clock with the Sunday School hour at 9:45.

Like a silent stream Time flows by---always at the same pace, never stopping, for "Time and tide wait for no man."

The New Year is a man's arbitrary designation of the division of time. We are reminded of time's swift passing as we remove the old calendar and hang up the new. With each tick of the clock, time is running along; and each minute is shortening by that much our span of life on this earth.

We are bound by time--it is the stuff of which life is made. When we have plenty of it, we tend to take it for granted. When, however, time is running out for us, we value it highly. Given equally to all men, it tends to differentiate between the wise and the foolish as they use or mususe this priceless commodity.

In the thirteenth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke, our Lord tells the parable of the barren fig tree that makes an appropriate lesson at the beginning of the New Year. (Verses 6-9)

> And he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. And he said to the vinedresser, 'Lo, these three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down; why should it use up the ground?' And he answered him, 'Let it alone, sir, this year also, till I dig about it and put on manure.
> 'And if it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down!"

The vineyard is the world and the owner of the vineyard is Almighty God. Where the fig tree has been symbolically applied to the nation of Israel, it can just as well represent the Christian Church or the individual member of that church. And it has a lesson for each person created in the image of God. The vinedresser is Jesus Christ who intercedes before God on our behalf. Where we have failed to use wisely the time that has been given to us, He pleads, "Let it alone this year also". Thus He digs about the tree, fertilizes and feeds it with careful nurture in the hope that this year it shall bear fruit and thus fulfill its intended purpose in living.

Looking back in retrospect as a nation or as a community, or even as individuals in the community, has the record for 1962 been one of worthy accomplishment? Have we been concerned mostly with material or with spiritual values? What efforst have been put forth to spread a Gospel of love with concerns centered not in "self" but in "others"? Have we sought to foster understanding, good-will, a forgiving spirit in our relations with one another?

While we thank God for evidences of "fruit-bearing", we must admit that far too often the image is more like that of the barren fig tree. For the forces of evil run rampant among us with little evidence of concerted action against much that undermines the values of our "Christian" heritage. We make tremendous advances in science and technology and yet cannot control ourselves. We boast of devastating destructive powers against the enemy who would dare to attack us from without, but the more insidious enemies of crime and greed and unfaithfulness within our boundaries goes unchecked.

Thank God that He defers judgment. Thank God that He is long-suffering. Take courage from the plea of Jesus Christ, "Let it alone this year also"; and at the same time pray that by His strength and help the fig tree of our lives shall bear fruit and find new purpose in life during the coming year. For we live in a day of grace and opportunity with the resources of God at our disposal. The wise will heed the plea of the Scriptures to "Redeem the time"!

OLIVER RUUD

by his step-son, Thompson returned with a rifle and started shooting into the house, hitting and killing Rodrigues, who with his mother and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown and two small children were just starting their Christmas dinner.

Brown ran to the back door and stopped Thompson as he started to rush into the house. Seizing a soft drink bottle, Brown belted Thompson over the head and grabbed for the rifle. In the ensuing fight for the possession of the murder weapon, Brown managed to wrestle the rifle away from Thompson and use it to subdue Thompson. The rifle discharged during the fight, hitting Thompson in the leg.

Thompson was taken to the County Hospital by ambulance, trailed by the Campbell Police officers. He was found to be suffering from a possible broken leg, broken arm, fractured ribs and numerous head cuts as well as the gun shot in his leg. He has been charged with murder and is under guard at the County Hospital.

BREUNER'S BREAKS GROUND--- Groundbreaking ceremonies were held early in January for the million-dollar Breuner's Wayside home furnishing store on Hamilton Avenue with Mayor Henry A. Weitzel of Campbell, Supervisor Ralph Mehrkens, Planning Commission Chairman James Tomlinson and Floyd Southard and William R. Breuner of the firm getting the building program under way.

Campbell in step as state reaches No. one position

MAYOR'S STATEMENT

In a statement from the Mayor of Campbell, Peter B. Lico pointed out that California will officially become the nations Number One State as of January 1, 1963. He is particularly proud that Campbell has played such a great part in the growth of this state. Since Campbell became a city in 1952 the population of 2,779 has mushroomed to well over 15,000 as of June, 1962.

Campbell has greatly expanded industrially and commercially. Campbell can also be proud of its good fortune for securing the top-notch educators for this district.

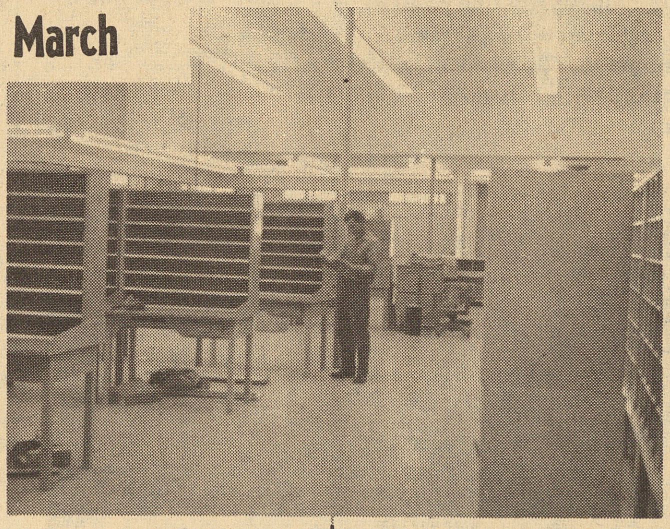
This is mostly the beginning, by 1980 the projected trade area population of Campbell should be well over 410,000 people. In the next few years we will see phenominal changes in the fast growing City of Campbell, as continually new business and industry is alerted to the opportunities that lie in the future of Campbell.

He states he is proud to live in the Number One State, and equally proud to serve as Mayor of this City of Campbell.

February

SUFFERED STROKE--- Sam Cava, well-known secretary-manager of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, suffered a stroke early in February, which left him partially paralyzed and with a speech encumbrance. Ted Regas temporarily took over the reins of the Old Settler's Celebration until someone could be found to take the place left vacant by Cava. Last report from Mrs. Cava was that Sam was slowly but steadily improving and although unable to talk, still has his alert mind.

March



POST OFFICE MOVES--- The Campbell Post office moved in March to their new quarters at 90 E. Latimer avenue. Contrast in space is shown between the upper and lower photos.

Campbell Avenue, Campbell, according to an announcement made by William H. Dunn, spokesman for the Law Firm of Dunn, Finch and Dawson representing Campbell Properties, Managers of the building.

Mantle joined New York in 1957 and established offices in Campbell in 1958 with Richard E. Burdick, also a New York Agent.

Burton All - Tourney pick

Bucs lose Live Oak Tourney crown

Campbell High's Varsity Basketball squad failed in its effort to defend its Live Oak High School Tournament championship, this Christmas vacation, Dec. 20-21-22, but went all the way to the tourney finals and garnered second place before losing the title to a skilled and experienced five from Gilroy High. The Bucs lost the tourney finale, 54-34, last Saturday night.

Out-classed and out maneuvered, and occasionally playing against themselves, Campbell's basketballers were clearly no match for the Mustang crew, although the Bucs did an enviable job of defending their title. Gilroy was never behind in the contest: after the first quarter she held a comfortable lead of 15 to 20 points.

Last year's Campbell squad, Champions of the West Santa Clara Valley Athletic League in 1961-2, ran away with the Live Oak title with little difficulty. This year the Campbell team returned to the Tournament without any regulars of the previous championship team. Despite this handicap, Campbell once again has a good team with skill and teamwork to take its opponents down to the wire. Even more so than last year's team, the 1962-3 squad is a credit to the excellent work of Bert Robinson who has been coaching Campbell players for a decade, repeatedly turning out fine teams even when factors of talent and experience are against him.

Saturday night's game saw Gilroy's Bob Stuckey, voted the tournament's Most Valuable Player, lead his team to victory with a total of 19 points. Also leading the Mustang attack was Voorhies with 14 markers, followed by Eustis, 6, Rocca, 4, Kennedy, 3, and Della Pitta, 2.

Bob Burton, selected for the tournament's All Tourney Team, lead Campbell's comparatively balanced scoring with 10 points, followed by Hall, 6, and Porter, Ledesma and Womack, each with 4.

The downfall of the Bucs appeared to be that of Stuckey's ability on the outside shots and Campbell's inability on the same. Stuckey, a tall (6-5), slender dark-haired lad with the moves of a seasoned college star teamed up with mate Voorhies to totally outdistance the Bucs and almost equal the whole Campbell team in scoring.

CAMPBELL VS. WILLOW GLEN----Campbell gained entrance to the finals by defeating Hollister in the opening game and then Willow Glen in the semi-finals on Friday night. The Bucs rolled over Willow Glen 55-39, taking a 24-5 first quarter lead and coasting to a win. Leaders in the first period splurge, which came as something of a surprise to the favored Rams, were Bob Burton with four field goals and Terry Porter with another eight points, plus Larry Peters with five points.

At Halftime Campbell led 35-15 and had no trouble taking the win. On the free throw line Campbell went nine for sixteen and Willow Glen hit nine of thirteen. Campbell's offense was extremely well-balanced with Porter leading at 12, Burton 11, Hall 10, and Womack 9. Bill Chamberlain, another All-Tourney selection, paced the Rams with 20 points.

Although Hollister led at Halftime in the Tourney's first game, 4:00 Thursday afternoon, Campbell recovered from the 22-21 deficit and, due to a sudden lack of shooting ability on the part of Hollister scored but two field goals. Meanwhile Campbell rolled on with 27 more points in the half (6 from both Porter and Burton and 5 from Ledesma) to cinch the win. Burton led Campbell with 11 points, followed by Porter with 10. Hollister's "Shorty" Silva's two field goals and 13 successful free throws resulted his 17 point total.

Campbell High hosts Bee cage tournament

Campbell High will host its second annual Bee Basketball tournament this week, Dec. 27-28-29. Although last year's champion, Camden, will not participate this time, Wilcox High, Lincoln, Saratoga, host Campbell, Del Mar, Blackford, and Leigh will compete.

First game was at 4:00 Thursday afternoon. Four games take place every day at 4:00, 5:30, 7:00, and 8:30. The Championship game will be at 8:30 Saturday night.
